Dear Sirs

I have yet to see any evidence that the Financial Ombudsman is dealing with my complaints as a single complaint coalescing the Banks listed in this Press Release as the evidence of a conspiracy between the six Banks and the Ombudsman is now without any shadow of doubt

Thank you for contacting the Financial Ombudsman Service, we are a free service set up to resolve disputes with financial businesses, like banks or insurance companies.

We're helping a lot of customers at the moment, so I'm sorry we won't be able to reply straight away.

If you're contacting us about a new complaint

You can find out more about the things we can help with on our website – where you can also use our complaint checker tool to see if your complaint is one we can look at.

If we can help, we will get back to you within 7 days. Due to the volume of enquiries we receive, we are only able to reply to those customers we can help.

If you already have a complaint with us

We'll contact you once your complaint is with a case-handler.

However, if you're experiencing serious financial or health problems, or need to speak to someone urgently, please call us on 0800 023 4567.

If we are not able to help you

We can only look at complaints about financial businesses (like banks, insurance companies and finance firms). We can't help with other complaints – for example, about phone and utility companies, council tax or legal services. Please look at our website for more information about other organisations that may be able to help – but they are completely separate from the Financial Ombudsman Service

And just to remind you again, if we can help, we will get back to you within 7 days.

Thanks,

Dear Dr Panigrahi,

Thank you for contacting us.

I have checked your petition, and currently there are only 3 signatures recorded.

You need to have a minimum of 5 in order for your petition to enter the queue to be checked.

The supporter that you mention has not signed the petition – according to our records – and that is why you did not receive the usual notification.

I hope this has clarified the situation for you.

Dear Sir/Madam

I write with concern on two accounts, the first is that I am told by one of my supporters to the Petition, Daneswari Kundeti, that she has signed the Petition attached here for your reference (FrPetitionsCommitteeHOC(Action required on Petition for a Written Constitution in the United Kingdom)4Nov2024), but I did not receive a notification from you that this is factually correct in the same way as Andrew Brown's and Christopher Wood's signatures had sent me notifications. I know that I have been terrorised by a gang of Cyber lunatics to disrupt my emailing facilities for several years in order to annoy me and try and stifle the progress of the petition for a Written Constitution for the United Kingdom as you will note below which is a trap set for me to respond to on the website by way of a reply to cause me legal difficulties for any response could and would be interpreted as if I wanted a revolution in the United Kingdom which cannot be further from the truth. The Party that I lead, The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (TCLP-UK) merely wishes for clarity in the governance of the nation so that people get better informed of what to expect from the State and what the State expects from the citizen.

Above all we as TCLP-UK wish to be recognised as an Establishment political party that can enter into democratic activities such as campaigning for election into the House of Commons and into the Councils up and down the country. Submission of the Petition comes within that scope.

Please let me know whether there have been any further signatures to the Petition as I had asked about 40 of my connections in LinkedIn and elsewhere to consider signing it but none would reply to me which aroused suspicion that they were being manipulated by some hidden powers of the State from corresponding with me on the matter. If this was proven it would bring

Parliament in disarray for I would not get the requisite 5 signatures to have it published in the first instance.

I should be grateful for your response.

1. Thank you for the clarification.
2. The urgency of the Petition cannot be overstated in light of the prevarications, delays, the obstruction of justice perpetrated in a concerted manner as attached to which there have been no acknowledgement of receipt let alone a considered response to me:

3. On a minor point: aside from Andrew Brown and Christopher Wood, I have not received notification of the signing of the Petition from the 3rd person that you mention. Please let me know the name of this person so that I do not approach him or her again to sign it.

I am confused. I thought Katrina Sale affair together with VOPA litigation under Claim E35YM660 of the Central London County Court has entered Summary Judgment following the adjourned Hearing of 20 January 2023 in my favour against former Conservative Prime Ministers. But the Circuit Judge has forgiven the Defendants.

I have yet to see any evidence that the Financial Ombudsman is dealing with my complaints as a single complaint coalescing the Banks listed in this Press Release as the evidence of a conspiracy between the six Banks and the Ombudsman is now without any shadow of doubt

Thank you for contacting the Financial Ombudsman Service, we are a free service set up to resolve disputes with financial businesses, like banks or insurance companies.

We're helping a lot of customers at the moment, so I'm sorry we won't be able to reply straight away.

If you're contacting us about a new complaint

You can find out more about the things we can help with on our website – where you can also use our complaint checker tool to see if your complaint is one we can look at.

If we can help, we will get back to you within 7 days. Due to the volume of enquiries we receive, we are only able to reply to those customers we can help.

If you already have a complaint with us

We'll contact you once your complaint is with a case-handler.

However, if you're experiencing serious financial or health problems, or need to speak to someone urgently, please call us on 0800 023 4567.

If we are not able to help you

We can only look at complaints about financial businesses (like banks, insurance companies and finance firms). We can't help with other complaints – for example, about phone and utility companies, council tax or legal services. Please look at our website for more information about other organisations that may be able to help – but they are completely separate from the Financial Ombudsman Service

And just to remind you again, if we can help, we will get back to you within 7 days.

Dear Dr Panigrahi,

The third person whose signature is recorded is yourself as you started the petition.

So it is only the signatures of Andrew Brown and Christopher Wood that are registered.

As for the other two matters, they lie outside the scope of the Petitions Committee remit, so we are unable to comment or action on these.

If you are able to gain two more signatures for your petition, then it will enter the queue for my colleagues to check that it meets our standards before it is published.

1. Thank you for the clarification.

2. The urgency of the Petition cannot be overstated in light of the prevarications, delays, the obstruction of justice perpetrated in a concerted manner as attached to which there have been no acknowledgement of receipt let alone a considered response to me:

I have checked your petition, and currently there are only 3 signatures recorded. You need to have a minimum of 5 in order for your petition to enter the queue to be checked. The supporter that you mention has not signed the petition – according to our records – and that is why you did not receive the usual notification.

I hope this has clarified the situation for you.

Petitions Committee

House of Commons

Dear Sir/Madam

I write with concern on two counts, the first is that I am told by one of my supporters to the Petition, Daneswari Kundeti, that she has signed the Petition attached here for your reference (FrPetitionsCommitteeHOC(Action required on Petition for a Written Constitution in the United Kingdom)4Nov2024), but I did not receive a notification from you that this is factually correct in the same way as Andrew Brown's and Christopher Wood's signatures had sent me notifications. I know that I have been terrorised by a gang of Cyber lunatics to disrupt my emailing facilities for several years in order to annoy me and try and stifle the progress of the petition for a Written Constitution for the United Kingdom as you will note below which is a trap set for me to respond to on the website by way of a reply to cause me legal difficulties for any response could and would be interpreted as if I wanted a revolution in the United Kingdom which cannot be further from the truth. The Party that I lead, The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (TCLP-UK) merely wishes for clarity in the governance of the nation so that people get better informed of what to expect from the State and what the State expects from the citizen.

Above all we as TCLP-UK wish to be recognised as an Establishment political party that can enter into democratic activities such as campaigning for election into the House of Commons and into the Councils up and down the country. Submission of the Petition comes within that scope.

Please let me know whether there have been any further signatures to the Petition as I had asked about 40 of my connections in LinkedIn and elsewhere to consider signing it but none would reply to me which aroused suspicion that they were being manipulated by some hidden powers of the State from corresponding with me on the matter. If this was proven it would bring Parliament in disarray for I would not get the requisite 5 signatures to have it published in the first instance.

I should be grateful for your response.

Yours sincerely

Update:

At 19.54 pm a PayPal email came into the Yahoo account: after some thought decided to delete it for this matter will have to be channelled to defend myself in a criminal court that the State is still trying to direct matters towards. I cannot engage with any of the State's institutions, or solicitors as I must retain the 10 November 2023 2.00 pm Trial to work towards for it has come in an email and has not been superceded by any other clarifications. I am just waiting for the CVP details to be sent to me as I had requested. A Court decision will seal the revolution.

That was an error of judgment, the correct website is <https://app.joinit.com/o/vishista-advaita-sampradaya-tclsclrp-uk> But let us get to the nitty-gritty: Would you be interested in a Petition to the House of Commons that I initiated for a Written Constitution for the United Kingdom? - if so please send me an email to shantanupanigrahi@yahoo.com.

My petition:

Develop an official written Constitution in the United Kingdom for governance.

An unwritten Constitution foisted upon the people is wrong morally. A written Constitution is needed that outlines the relationships between the Head of State and Parliament at both Houses and in terms of their inter-connections with the Security Services, Judicial and other State institutions.

Unwritten Constitution makes a Monarchical Establishment to become secretly dictatorial and tyrannical to selected individuals and groups. With a written constitution people are fully informed on what to expect from the State and what is expected of them to the State. With a written Constitution people will be fully informed on who is in charge of procedures in Parliament, Mental Health Institutions, Security Services; and who a citizen can successfully prosecute in civil and criminal courts.

My petition:

Develop an official written Constitution in the United Kingdom for governance.

An unwritten Constitution foisted upon the people is wrong morally. A written Constitution is needed that outlines the relationships between the Head of State and Parliament at both Houses and in terms of their inter-connections with the Security Services, Judicial and other State institutions.

Unwritten Constitution makes a Monarchical Establishment to become secretly dictatorial and tyrannical to selected individuals and groups. With a written constitution people are fully informed on what to expect from the State and what is expected of them to the State. With a written Constitution people will be fully informed on who is in charge of procedures in Parliament, Mental Health Institutions, Security Services; and who a citizen can successfully prosecute in civil and criminal courts.

I have been resident in the United Kingdom since the age of 15 (I am now 67 years old) and it is a country that I love. However, there is not something perfect about it apart from Nature. We know that Britain had several hundred years of colonial rule and I see that as having been a very good part of the role that the United Kingdom was instrumental in bringing the world together such that everything in terms of science and technology emanated from it. Today humanity lives with greater comfort and prosperity across the world than our forefathers could not imagine possible. However all that came about from not having a Written Constitution to serve the people of Great Britain itself. It does not have a Constitution written or unwritten. The buck does not stop anywhere when it comes to responsibilities and accountability of individuals and institutions. This results in what people conceive of as being institutional corruption from top to bottom. But it is nothing of the kind. People are very decent at heart. In fact someone like me who originates in India has not seen more courteous, and good people anywhere in the world.

But the people are suffering inside because there is no Written Constitution. It has tremendous shortcomings when it comes to addressing the needs and welfare of the people. I have experienced these over the past 26 years of continuous litigation to bring people who I saw as having terrorised me, but the Courts are powerless to do anything about it because the State is operated by hidden powers secretly as if it still is living in the glorious colonial age. In my assessment mental disorders are directly a symptom of having to live under no Constitution in a country. Crime will also be significantly lower with a Written Constitution.

It is time for the change to happen within the United Kingdom. The steps that are required have to go through the democratic process, so that the transition is totally non-violent.

It is not sufficient to find out what is wrong with society, one has to diagnose correctly and then prescribe the appropriate medication to treat the injustices, the lack of truth and the lack of democracy in the United Kingdom.

I have done the hard work of just that, now it is for the people to decide.

I have started my second petition at the House of Commons Petition Committee to persuade parliamentarians to develop a Written Constitution for today's needs. I need 2 more signatures for the Committee to take an initial look at what is proposed.

So I will directly get to the point. I need your support to sign the attached Petition:

Dear House of Commons Petition Committee

1. Thank you for your email yesterday, as attached: FrHOCPetitionsCommittee(Queries raised by Kevin in Daily Bulletin website relating to my PetitionFinalClarificationProvided)12Nov2024.docx.

2. Accordingly, with Jill Jesson and Allen Jesson's signatures this morning that I received notification of, we have reached the target of the 5 Signatures required for what may be a preliminary assessment by the Team to determine if it can be published. I would like to Team to reconsider this along with the full expanded justification hereby submitted that I have now used to gather together supporters to the Petition for two short paragraphs allowed in the website is not sufficient to give the full background, as follows (please let me know if this is not permitted by the rules):

Dear Dr Panigrahi,

The third person whose signature is recorded is yourself as you started the petition.

So it is only the signatures of Andrew Brown and Christopher Wood that are registered.

As for the other two matters, they lie outside the scope of the Petitions Committee remit, so we are unable to comment or action on these.

If you are able to gain two more signatures for your petition, then it will enter the queue for my colleagues to check that it meets our standards before it is published.

1. Thank you for the clarification.
2. The urgency of the Petition cannot be overstated in light of the prevarications, delays, the obstruction of justice perpetrated in a concerted manner as attached to which there have been no acknowledgement of receipt let alone a considered response to me:

 I have checked your petition, and currently there are only 3 signatures recorded.
 You need to have a minimum of 5 in order for your petition to enter the queue to be checked.

The supporter that you mention has not signed the petition – according to our records – and that is why you did not receive the usual notification.

I hope this has clarified the situation for you.

To

Petitions Committee

House of Commons

Dear Sir/Madam

I write with concern on two counts, the first is that I am told by one of my supporters to the Petition, Daneswari Kundeti, that she has signed the Petition attached here for your reference (FrPetitionsCommitteeHOC(Action required on Petition for a Written Constitution in the United Kingdom)4Nov2024), but I did not receive a notification from you that this is factually correct in the same way as Andrew Brown's and Christopher Wood's signatures had sent me notifications. I know that I have been terrorised by a gang of Cyber lunatics to disrupt my emailing facilities for several years in order to annoy me and try and stifle the progress of the petition for a Written Constitution for the United Kingdom as you will note below which is a trap set for me to respond to on the website by way of a reply to cause me legal difficulties for any response could and would be interpreted as if I wanted a revolution in the United Kingdom which cannot be further from the truth. The Party that I lead, The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (TCLP-UK) merely wishes for clarity in the governance of the nation so that people get better informed of what to expect from the State and what the State expects from the citizen.

Above all we as TCLP-UK wish to be recognised as an Establishment political party that can enter into democratic activities such as campaigning for election into the House of Commons and into the Councils up and down the country. Submission of the Petition comes within that scope.

Please let me know whether there have been any further signatures to the Petition as I had asked about 40 of my connections in LinkedIn and elsewhere to consider signing it but none would reply to me which aroused suspicion that they were being manipulated by some hidden powers of the State from corresponding with me on the matter. If this was proven it would bring Parliament in disarray for I would not get the requisite 5 signatures to have it published in the first instance.

I should be grateful for your response.

Yours sincerely

Watch out for online scams

Watch out for online scams

Hello Shantanu

When buying things online, it can be hard to tell the difference between genuine sellers and fake ones. Anyone can fall for a purchase scam, and you might not realise until you don't get what you paid for.

Don't get duped – protect yourself from fake sellers

Do

Research sites and sellers before you buy. Reading reviews can help you tell if they're genuine

Open websites by typing them into your browser, not by clicking links

Consider whether deals you see on social media are too good to be true

See high-value items in person before buying from sellers on social media.

Don't

Buy something an influencer is talking about without doing any research

Feel pressured to buy something just because it says it's selling fast or the deal ends soon

Agree to use gift cards to pay private sellers

Assume everyone in a social media group is genuine – scammers join these to gain your trust.

Dear Dr Panigrahi,

Thank you for your email.

I owe you an apology, as I mistakenly said that you needed 5 signatures in order to get your petition into the queue.

I now realise that it should be 5 more signatures beside yours – so the threshold for getting your petition into the queue is actually 6.

I attach a link to the relevant information on our site as well that confirms this here -

<https://petition.parliament.uk/help>

I am relatively new to the committee administration, and mis-read the information – and I am truly sorry for this.

I hope that you will be able to find one more signatory, and then your petition can enter the queue for checking.

Kind Regards,

Monika

Subject: The 5 Signatures target has been reached

Dear House of Commons Petition Committee

1. Thank you for your email yesterday, as attached: FrHOCPetitionsCommittee(Queries raised by Kevin in Daily Bulletin website relating to my PetitionFinalClarificationProvided)12Nov2024.docx.

2. Accordingly, with Jill Jesson and Allen Jesson's signatures this morning that I received notification of, we have reached the target of the 5 Signatures required for what may be a preliminary assessment by the Team to determine if it can be published. This is why I have clarified the evidence in my previous email that you seem to be discarding as irrelevant for the Committee's purposes. I would like to Team to reconsider this along with the full expanded justification hereby submitted that I have now used to gather together supporters to the Petition for two short paragraphs allowed in the website is not sufficient to give the full background, as follows (please let me know if this is not permitted by the rules):

'I have been resident in the United Kingdom since the age of 15 (I am now 67 years old) and it is a country that I love. However, there is not something perfect about it apart from Nature. We know that Britain had several hundred years of colonial rule and I see that as having been a very good part of the role that the United Kingdom was instrumental in bringing the world together such that everything in terms of science and technology emanated from it. Today humanity lives with greater comfort and prosperity across the world that our forefathers could not imagine possible. However all that came about from not having a Written Constitution to serve the people of Great Britain itself. It does not have a Constitution written or unwritten. The buck does not stop anywhere when it comes to responsibilities and accountability of individuals and institutions. This results in what people conceive of as being institutional corruption from top to bottom. But it is nothing of the kind. People are very decent at heart. In fact someone like me who originates in India has not seen more courteous, and good people anywhere in the world.

But the people are suffering inside because there is no Written Constitution. It has tremendous shortcomings when it comes to addressing the needs and welfare of the people. I have experienced these over the past 26 years of continuous litigation to bring people who I saw as having terrorised me, but the Courts are powerless to do anything about it because the State is operated by hidden powers secretly as if it still is living in the glorious colonial age. In my assessment mental disorders are directly a symptom of having to live under no Constitution in a country. Crime will also be significantly lower with a Written Constitution.

It is time for the change to happen within the United Kingdom. The steps that are required have to go through the democratic process, so that the transition is totally non-violent.

It is not sufficient to find out what is wrong with society, one has to diagnose correctly and then prescribe the appropriate medication to treat the injustices, the lack of truth and the lack of democracy in the United Kingdom.

I have done the hard work of just that, now it is for the people to decide.

I have started my second petition at the House of Commons Petition Committee to persuade parliamentarians to develop a Written Constitution for today's needs. I need 2 more signatures for the Committee to take an initial look at what is proposed.

*So I will directly get to the point. I need your support to sign the attached Petition:
FrPetitionsCommitteeHOC(Action required on Petition for a Written Constitution in the United Kingdom for governance)4Nov2024.docx.*

Shantanu'

3. Please therefore channel this email to the Committee sifting through the queue into which our Petition has now entered.

My petition:

Develop an official written Constitution in the United Kingdom for governance.

An unwritten Constitution foisted upon the people is wrong morally. A written Constitution is needed that outlines the relationships between the Head of State and Parliament at both Houses and in terms of their inter-connections with the Security Services, Judicial and other State institutions.

Unwritten Constitution makes a Monarchical Establishment to become secretly dictatorial and tyrannical to selected individuals and groups. With a written constitution people are fully informed on what to expect from the State and what is expected of them to the State. With a written Constitution people will be fully informed on who is in charge of procedures in Parliament, Mental Health Institutions, Security Services; and who a citizen can successfully prosecute in civil and criminal courts.
